'Cash-for-crash' car scam costs millions

BY STEVE LOWE
editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

MORE than 5,000 'cash for crash' car insurance scams were recorded in Luton last year.

It is one of the fastest growing crimes in the country and costs insurers tens of millions of pounds a year. These extra costs are passed on to motorists in higher premiums, as well as the fact that victims lose their no-claims bonus.

The scam works by crooks forcing a minor accident at junctions roundabouts, or traffic lights.

One driver, or sometimes a team of two, will engineer a shunt and claim you have caused it.

For example, a car in front on a roundabout will brake suddenly, forcing you to do the same and the vehicle behind will accuse you of hitting it.

They will then ask for your insurance details.

When they contact the insurance company, many of the details will have changed.

While the person was originally alone, he or she will now have had three children in the back.

This is because each child can get £7,250 for whiplash.

The damage will be much worse and they will need a car as theirs is off the road.

For example, for a taxi hit in the rear bumper, damage only costs £1,200 to repair, but after recovery, storage, hire of another taxi and whiplash, final costs amount to £24,000.

Police rarely investigate these days, either the accident or the scam. An insurance investigator told us: "These are definitely not urban myths."

"It is a multi-million pound fraud."

"It is important to know what is going on and I can give the following advice if anyone is involved in a slight damage road traffic accident."

SCAM: Insurance fraudsters use busy traffic to stage their fake accidents

Beds Police set to have a new chief constable

THE identity of the proposed new chief constable for the county's police force has been revealed.

Bedfordshire's Police and Crime Commissioner Olly Martins has announced that he will be proposing the appointment of Colette Paul, pictured, who is currently deputy chief constable of South Wales Police, to the Police and Crime Panel when it meets on June 4.

The panel is responsible for reviewing the appointment of a new chief constable and recommending to the commissioner whether or not Ms Paul should get the job. It also has the power to veto the appointment.

PCC Martins said: "This was a difficult decision as all the candidates were of a particularly high calibre – and a very important one."

"However, I firmly believe that we have selected the individual best suited to the needs of Bedfordshire Police and our local communities, in line with my overall objective of a safer Bedfordshire."

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO

■ If no injury is sustained, to comply with the law, you only have to give your name and address, registration number of the vehicle and the details of the owner, if different from the driver

■ Confirm with other parties if any injuries have been sustained. If there have been, then exchange insurance details and report the accident to the police

■ Confirm the number of occupants in all vehicles, also their position seated in the vehicle. This is due to the number of bogus ghost passengers who claim after the event

■ If you have a mobile phone with a camera, take pictures of the location, damage to all vehicles – old and new damage – and of the occupants if possible

■ Take note if vehicles are driven away after the impact due to the amount of bogus recovery claims

■ Refuse all help from Accident Shops, text messages and emails offering help with your accident claim. They will all increase your final bill.

A lot of the claims regarding false whiplash injuries, vehicle recovery, accident damage quotes, doctors and solicitors' letters are excessive and fraudulent

■ Contact your insurance legal department and make it known if you think the accident circumstances are suspicious

■ If you feel threatened at the scene of an accident call 999

■ Check if the area is covered by CCTV

'No pleasure' at guilty verdict in murder trial

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

THE grandfather of Delaney Brown said that he derives 'no great pleasure' from seeing the teenager's one-time friend, Kyle Beckford, jailed for 24 years for his murder.

Delaney Brown was killed after being deliberately knocked from a bicycle as he rode along the pavement in Vincent Road, Leagrave on September 5, 2012.

During the trial the jury heard how a stolen silver BMW, driven by Beckford, had mounted the pavement and hit the bike Delaney Brown was riding, causing fatal injuries.

Beckford, 22, of Waleys Close, Luton pleaded not guilty to murder but during the trial, which began on April 29, offered a guilty plea to manslaughter.

On Wednesday, the jury found him unanimously guilty of the murder of Delaney Brown and he was sentenced to life in prison with a 24-year minimum term.

At a press conference following the verdict, Delaney Brown Senior, said: "It is very sad to know that Delaney Brown's life was extinguished with no justifiable cause and his full potential not realised, by the hand of someone who was once called a friend."

KILLER: Kyle Beckford

"Although the right justice has been served, it gives us no great pleasure to see a young man be in incarceration for a long time and we hope that one day he will show remorse for his actions."

During the trial it was heard how Delaney and Kyle Beckford had been friends, but as they grew up they had both drifted into rival gangs.

It was claimed that Beckford was part of the 'Marsh Farm Gang' with Delaney Brown being a member of the 'Lewsey Farm Gang.'

It was said that in the weeks and months leading up to the murder, there were a number of 'violent incidents between these groups'.

VICTIM: Delaney Brown

At one point, a meeting was held in a McDonalds restaurant involving members of both gangs and their parents and family in an attempt to calm the situation.

But after believing that the Lewsey Farm gang, including Delaney Brown, had shown "disrespect" at the funeral of Beckford's grandfather, the 22-year-old decided on revenge.

During sentencing, Judge Richard Foster said that he hoped that the case would send a message to those committing crime associated with gangs that they would be shown no mercy by the courts.

He added: "There can be no excuse for the men of this town to live in this gang culture."

Teenager arrested and released over Marsh Farm shooting

A TEENAGER arrested on suspicion of attempted murder following the shooting of a 16-year-old boy has been released on bail pending further enquiries.

The arrest, pictured, of the 19-year-old was made by armed response officers on Wednesday afternoon in Marsh Farm. Police had been out in force following the increase in the number of incidents involving firearms in the town in recent months. See feature p16-17.

Since Sunday, the number of officers patrolling Marsh Farm has doubled in a bid to reassure the public and ensure offenders who carry guns or weapons in public are stopped and arrested.

The incident in which a 16-year-old was shot in the back happened during the early hours of Saturday, May 11, in Thricknells Close, Marsh Farm.

It was the 16th incident involving a firearm to have taken place in the town since January.

The victim remains in a serious but stable condition in hospital but is sitting up and talking with detectives, family and friends. His injuries are still under review but it has been suggested that he may not walk again.

The police, who have admitted that they are 'struggling' to get witnesses to come forward to give evidence, have now offered a £1,000 reward to anyone who gives information that leads to the arrest and conviction of an offender who is involved in gun crime in the town.

TEENAGER SEXUALLY ASSAULTED

A SCHOOLGIRL has been sexually assaulted while she was walking home.

The 16-year-old was walking along Waller Avenue on Thursday afternoon when a man started talking to her and walking alongside her. He tried to kiss her but she pulled away. Then he grabbed her in an indecent manner before running away.

Bedfordshire Police have made an appeal for witnesses. If you have information relating to this incident contact the force on 101.

TORY MP WANTS DUAL TICKET

MP NADINE Dorries has revealed she is thinking of running as a joint candidate for both the Conservative party and UKIP at the next general election.

The Mid-Bedfordshire MP has spoken to her association about the idea, claiming that having two logos on the ballot paper is made possible by legislation.

A spokesman for the Mid-Beds Conservative Association said it was a 'novel idea' but he had to check if it was 'concurrent with the Conservative constitution'.

QUARTET ANNOUNCED AS CADETS

FOUR cadets have been appointed by the Lord-Lieutenant of Bedfordshire, Helen Nellis.

Emma Harwood, William Hunt, Jonathon Bell and Abbie Nye will now support the Lord-Lieutenant in carrying out her duties.

The Lord-Lieutenant said the group was the 'finest of the many talented young people in our cadet forces within Bedfordshire'.

Busway costs claimed to be running on track

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

EXPENDITURE on the controversial Luton Dunstable Busway is 'within budget', a councillor has claimed.

Cllr Dave Taylor said Luton Council was continually monitoring the construction costs of the busway – which have risen by more than £4million – but added that the costs for the entire project were on track.

Earlier this year Luton on Sunday revealed that construction costs for the busway had risen from the initial contract price of £51.6m to a 'target cost' of £55.7m.

And Luton and Central Bedfordshire councils still have a shortfall of £5.2m in their required contributions to the £89.2m government-funded scheme.

Cllr Taylor was speaking following the council's demonstration on Thursday of how buses will run once the busway is operational.

The scheme is currently behind schedule and is expected to be open to the public in late August.

He said: "We are in constant communication with BAM Nuttall over their claims for the construction costs.

"It's currently within the budget of £90million, which is budget for the whole cost of the busway, and includes costs for things such as land acquisition.

"We can only work with an estimate at the moment – until we get the actual costs – so we are just waiting for the conclusion of the busway and then we can work out the final cost.

ON TRACK: Officials demonstrate a section of the busway

"It's difficult to say what the final cost will be because it's not been completed but we have people project managing it and monitoring it every day".

Luton Council has reserves of £15m set aside for capital projects such as the busway and Cllr Taylor said this was one of 'several options' the authority was looking at to meet any additional funding costs.

He added that both councils did not want any possible shortfall to add an 'extra burden on taxpayers'.

The scheme has been under constant criticism from the Liberal Democrats, with their deputy Cllr Martin Pantling, labeling it a 'misguided busway'.

In February the Lib Dem leader Cllr David Franks said: "It is no surprise to me that the busway looks like leaving a £9.3m headache. The scandal is that none of the senior Labour councillors seems to have seen it coming and they are still denying it's a problem."

DJ Wally hangs up his microphone

LUTON and Dunstable radio stalwart Wally Bennett has retired after 43 years on the airwaves.

The 83-year-old, pictured, who is the longest-serving member of the station, broadcast his final show from the studio yesterday afternoon.

The superstar DJ, who is delighted to achieve his personal ambition to broadcast longer than his idol Sir Jimmy Young, was thrown a farewell party by his colleagues after his last show.

L&D radio chairman, Mike Olivier, said: "Since joining L&D Radio in 1970, Wally has been a stalwart of the station.

"Being one of our more mature members, Wally quickly forged a special link with many of the older patients within the hospital, making him a very popular presenter.

"He will be sorely missed by listeners and colleagues alike."

Jury clears driver in 'neglect' case

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

A COUNCIL driver who left an 88-year-old woman on a bus overnight for 14 hours has been cleared of neglect.

Susan McLaughlin, 43, of Brunel Road, had been on trial at Luton Crown Court after Joan Cook, an elderly Alzheimer's sufferer, had been left on her minibus which was locked overnight in a depot on April 29 last year.

She had pleaded not guilty to a charge of neglect, contrary to Section 44 of the Mental Capacity Act 2005 and the jury took only 20 minutes to clear her.

Earlier in the day she told the court she had been distracted by 'chatter' over her radio about a missing child that should have been collected by another driver.

This led to Mrs Cook spending 14 hours trapped on the bus. McLaughlin discovered the 88-year-old was still on the vehicle when she came into work the next day.

Mrs Cook was still in the same seat and had not moved.

The driver told the court: "I felt bad, I felt sick and I was shaking. I couldn't believe she was still on the bus. I still can't believe how I left her on that bus."

Mrs McLaughlin also said her council employers were partly to blame for not ensuring she had an escort on the minibus that afternoon, along with the 88-year-old's carers, who didn't even know she was missing overnight.

She had worked for Luton Borough Council for 16 years and, for five years, had been a driver.

Her job was to ferry youngsters to schools in Luton and elderly people to day centres.

Outside court, one of Mrs

Cook's four daughters, Ann Holloway, said: "We are very disappointed. It seems an open invitation now to forget someone on board the bus because nothing will happen."

"Anyone can turn round now and say I am sorry I forgot."

Mrs McLaughlin's father Tom Stevens, who was in court for the verdict, said: "She lost her job over this and she is still stressed out by what happened. She won't leave the house. But we want to thank the jury."

Ex-army man hits the road

RUNNING some 132 miles in five days is the challenge a University of Bedfordshire psychologist has set himself as he bids to raise money for The Veterans Charity.

Paul Cavendish, 44, a former Territorial Army man, is among 250 fundraisers trekking from Ilfracombe, North Devon to Bulford, in Wiltshire, during the annual Forces March from Wednesday until Sunday.

The annual endurance challenge requires participants to cover an average of more than 26 miles each day on an undulating, all-road route.

It is based on a march by men of the Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire Light Infantry during World War II.

Paul, who has his sights set on raising £1,000, said: "My main ambition this year is simply to cross the finish line at the end, and to get through each day."

He added that motivation would come from thinking about how money raised will benefit ex-servicemen.

Help for novices to design games

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carlmungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

BUDDING video game designers with little technical knowledge will now be able to create games themselves using software developed by a Luton company.

Rapid 2D, pictured, based on Collingdon Street, has released a paid-for version of its software, which is the only one in the world specifically built for creating games on the latest Windows 8 system.

It was named in the top 40 of gaming engines worldwide by a video games magazine and has also been used by computing giant Microsoft for running competitions.

Myra Smallman, communications director at Rapid 2D, said: "It allows the novice or advanced programmer to make apps for the Windows 8 PC, tablet or phone platform. "So someone without programming experience can start making their game.

"We are the only ones with a games engine for Windows 8. We have a good relationship with Microsoft. Windows 8 is the way forward."

Food project helps elderly with nutrition

MALNUTRITION among the elderly is being tackled thanks to a food programme being tested in the county.

Little Bramingham Farm (LBF) care home in Luton is part of a number of homes in Bedfordshire using the Food First project to improve their clients' eating habits.

The project is run by SEPT health services and trains care homes on how to provide more nutritious foods.

Earlier this year Age UK estimated that 1.3 million people aged over 65 suffer from malnutrition.

Nympha Castillo, a senior carer at LBF, said: "It's a really good help for us and it's really handy.

"The elderly people were using nutrition supplements before but since they entered the Food First programme they do not use them as much because they have more nutritious foods now."

Pledge to clear up river's 'problem area'

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carlmungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

OFFICIALS have pledged to clear up a litter-strewn area of the River Lea after a university academic expressed concern over its condition.

Luton Council has said it is working towards getting the 'problem area' on New Bedford Road restored, after it was brought to their attention by Dr Syeda Shaguffa, pictured, a public health student at the University of Bedfordshire.

Dr Shaguffa, who is based in India, said she was 'delighted' with the council's response, but also urged residents in the town to take more responsibility for their environment.

She said: "I am delighted that the council has responded so quickly. It is so important that we all take pride in where we live, and of course it is an issue of public health."

A council spokesman said: "We are making arrangements to get this problem area cleared.

"It is disappointing to see it in this state and would like to remind people to take responsibility and use a litter bin, of which there are over 1,100 in the borough."

Firm launches investment programme

A GOVERNMENT minister has formally opened the first phase of a modernisation programme at a Luton company.

Lord Stephen Green, Minister for Trade and Investment, visited pump and motor manufacturer Hayward Tyler's facility on Kimpton Road on Wednesday.

The firm has recently invested more than £1m in new equipment and also announced £15m worth of new orders secured earlier this year.

Lord Green said: "Hayward Tyler is a striking example of how a UK-based manufacturing business can both compete and win in international markets thanks to the excellence of its design and the quality of its manufacturing process."

Parking issues at crematorium

SIR – MY wife and I used to regularly go to the Vale Crematorium in Stopsley on a Sunday. Not anymore.

The last time was on Sunday March 3, 2013. Sundays are the perfect time to visit loved ones and lay flowers on graves.

But the car parking problems caused by Luton Inspire swimming pool, and their gala days have stopped our visits.

Luton Borough Council, the swimming pool management, and the people who use the leisure centre, have no respect for the dead or their loved ones.

Their contempt knows no bounds.

John Tucker,
Bracklesham Gardens, Luton

Get trainers on to help charity

SIR – IF the spirit of London 2012 has inspired you and you'd like to get involved in a fun family event this summer, while raising money for charity, then look no further.

Get your trainers on and head down to Battersea Park for this year's RBC Race for the Kids on Sunday June 9, 2013.

The 5km family fun run helps to raise vital funds for Great Ormond Street Hospital Children's Charity.

You don't have to be an Olympian, everyone from young children to grandparents can take part – walk or run, it's up to you. It's a great family day out, with after race activities and entertainment for all.

PCC must sort gun crime

SIR – WHAT planet is Olly Martins, our Police and Crime Commissioner living on? I realise he is a politician and we have to make allowances because his kind often find it challenging to face reality. But his latest utterances are not of this world.

I refer to his describing two local murders and a drive-by shooting – all in one month – as 'just a blip'. But according to my reckoning we've had sixteen gun-related incidents in the town this year. That's nearly one a week.

So when does a 'blip' become an outbreak and an outbreak a crime wave?

He compounds his blunder (he's done a few of those) by appearing to lay the blame on the police – yes, his own team – telling us that 'the force needs to be better at communicating with people'.

Understandably, this ruffled some feathers at police HQ where a spokesperson felt the need to defend the force by saying that most people did already work with them and that they continued to work with 'pockets of people' who found it difficult to communicate with officers. Bedfordshire Police must really love their new boss.

Perhaps, if he spent less effort seeking personal publicity and trying to fill his days with irrelevant photo-shoots, he might get to grips with the real issues.

For example: did he really need to collect his posh new logo from Luton Sixth Form College in person; and was it really necessary for him to take his deputy along to help him carry it? She must be as lost for work as he is.

I estimate that visit cost us at least £500 in their time alone, when they could have been doing something useful.

Mr Martins must face the fact that in Luton violent crime is out of control. He should drop everything else until it's sorted.

That's what we're paying him and his cronies to do. Ron Turvey,
Stanmore Crescent, Luton

Wing mirror theft is an issue

SIR – Regarding the theft of Vauxhall wing mirror covers, I have actually lost count now of the number I have had stolen since 2009.

I will never buy another Vauxhall again specifically because of this. In the meantime, I now plan to write the words 'stolen' on the insides of my covers.

The police don't get reports because if I did report it my car insurance would rocket, and they would not do anything.

The first two cost £65 each because I was stupid enough to buy the colour-coded ones.

Then I replaced a couple by spraying them myself, about £30 each,

I then gave up on that and now replace with plain unpainted, which cost about £13 a time. I reckon I've had five or six of those at least. I'm not kidding.

I have also had my Vauxhall badge nicked, and that is now glued on, as are my roof bar covers. Like I say, my next car won't be a Vauxhall.

Leigh Jolly – via Facebook

SIR – Both of mine were nicked last month.

I don't see the point in reporting it or replacing them!

Sarah Mitchell – via Facebook

SIR – I had mine stolen from my Astra. There are lots missing in our street and surrounding streets.

I heard there is not much point in replacing them as they will probably get stolen again. Linda Cadden – via Facebook

When the going gets tough, the Tories run

IT was not a matter of if but when. Despite the charm and confidence of David Cameron, there were always two linked dangers facing a new Conservative government.

First that, at the first sign of trouble, they would lurch to the right. And second, that trouble was likely to come from Europe.

Such is the Tories' division on this issue they look like not being able to form another government for a long time.

It took them down last time and looks like history is about to repeat itself.

The complete antipathy of some Tories to anything European, apart from wine and holiday homes, borders on madness.

The notion that we can and will just leave the EU if we feel like it, and it will do our economy no harm is about as honest as the expenses claims some MPs used to submit.

There is a lot wrong with the EU, but there is quite a lot wrong with our government.

That is no reason not to fight for change and is also no reason to get rid of institutions, or simply pretend they do not exist, or matter.

It is also worth remembering a few political facts about the UK and the EU – mainly that it all came about under Conservative governments.

So the Conservatives, even those who are allegedly anti-European, have blood on their hands.

Two ex-ministers who would leave the EU, Nigel Lawson and Michael Portillo, were members of the Conservative governments in the 1980s and 1990s, so could have acted when they were in power, instead of jumping on the current bandwagon.

Now the Conservatives are going to publish draft legislation on a vote on whether to leave the EU, which will not become law.

Some of them are even opposing their own Queen's speech, with an amendment regretting there was no mention of an in-out referendum.

Virtually the whole of the rest of Europe is now in the EU, which has become the largest economy in the world.

And we are going to leave it because a few Tories don't like it when the EU gives us human rights and is over-bureaucratic? We won't be able to go to the USA instead because they want to deal with the EU.

Ah, but we can go to Asia. So how come, with all our ties, that Germany has greater exports to most Asian countries, including India, than we do? Germany does not seem to be stifled by regulation.

It sounds like excuses to me. That will change if we get off our backsides and work to produce what the world wants, at prices it can afford.

Not by having an anti-European tantrum every time the going gets a little tough.

Share your views on town carnival

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

WITH just a week to go until the Luton International Carnival, the organisers have revealed plans to ask people what they love about the event – and you could be in with the chance of winning a £50 shopping voucher.

The charity want to understand who the audience for carnival is and how they can get more people involved.

The UK Centre for Carnival Arts is due to launch an online survey which will provide vital feedback on who comes and who doesn't come to carnival and why.

All those who take part in the survey will be entered into a draw to win one of five £50 Amazon vouchers.

The winners will be announced on Monday, June 24. To have your say on the carnival, you just need to visit www.carnivalarts.org.uk on Sunday, May 26.

Pax Nindi, artistic director of Luton International Carnival 2013, said: "We want to hear from local people about what carnival means to them and how we can make the event even better in 2014."

"The carnival is about showcasing the immense creativity and diversity that is Luton. This questionnaire will give us greater insight into what people would like."

The friends were walking across a basketball court near Axe Close, Luton at around 1.10pm on Friday, May 10, when they were approached by the group.

One of the gang asked the victims if they had anything before the offenders searched both the victims, taking cash.

The first of the teenage thieves is described as white with a slim build and short blond hair that was spiked. The second is described as a white man with a medium build.

The third was a man with an Asian appearance, and the fourth was a man with an olive complexion and was wearing a hi-vis jacket.

'Witnesses need to come forward'

THIS week, 22-year-old Kyle Beckford was sentenced to a minimum of 24 years in prison for the murder of teenager Delaney Brown, who died after being run over by a car.

This conviction was made possible due to the written witness statements and evidence that was given to the police.

With 16 incidents involving firearms having taken place in town since the turn of the year, including the murder of 46-year-old Paul Foster, Bedfordshire Police have made a fresh appeal for witnesses to volunteer information.

At an emotional press conference on Wednesday afternoon, Delaney Brown's grandfather thanked the bravery of witnesses that had come forward to help with the case.

Delaney Brown Senior said: "Without their statements this case would not even have been heard."

"I urge members of the community to work with police. Do not allow criminals to feel they can go around causing serious harm without facing the consequences."

After the conviction, the force's attention is now focused on finding those responsible for using guns in the town, and in particular the person who killed Paul Foster five weeks ago.

At the press conference, Detective Superintendent Jeff Hill said: "A number of people can provide information in relation to the build up and events of the night Paul Foster was murdered, and they have still not made statements."

"If you have concerns for yourself or family, talk to us about it – we have measures we can put in place to address these fears."

"There is a perception that assisting the police makes you an informant – this is absolutely not the case.

"Until we change this view we will always find it incredibly difficult to bring to justice these cowards that run around with guns."

"My message is simple, carrying a gun does not make you a man, a leader or courageous."

"Brave men stand up and are counted and stand up for what is right."

"Put simply, cometh the hour, cometh the man."

"When you find that courage my officers are waiting."

"If you don't, when you look in the mirror know it is your lack of action that prevents your community being a safer place."

If you have information about a crime that has taken place in Luton, call Beds Police on 101.

Anne-Marie has the Retail Factor!

THE Mall Luton has named babywear brand Little Baby Boutique as winner of Retail Factor 2013 – the start-up business competition designed to promote budding entrepreneurs.

Little Baby Boutique winner Anne-Marie Paterson will claim a prize which includes a further two weeks free trading space in the shopping centre, a £500 cash contribution towards stock and a place at the prestigious Oxford Summer School Academy Course in August 2013.

Retail Factor provided 18 businesses across the UK with the opportunity to trade at The Mall shopping centres for two weeks.

Following the trading period the finalists were assessed on

WINNER: Anne-Marie Paterson, owner of the Little Baby Boutique, is delighted commercial viability, market appeal and development potential, with Little Baby Boutique deemed to be the strongest of the finalists.

The stall received fantastic feedback from shoppers, which confirmed to the judging panel that the business had the 'Retail Factor'.

The Luton-based company was started in November 2012 and sells one-of-a-kind, handmade baby clothes for newborns and toddlers.

Winner Anne-Marie said: "I am thrilled to have won the Retail Factor."

"It is a privilege to have the opportunity to trade in the Mall Luton and meet customers."

Julian Dow, of The Mall Luton added: "We are delighted to announce Little Baby Boutique has become the national Retail Factor winner."

"With a great brand identity the future looks very bright for this Luton-based business."

Relive the swingin' rock and roll sounds of The Beatles

MUSIC

The Grove Theatre, Dunstable
Saturday, May 25, 7.30pm

IF YOU missed The Beatles in 1963 now is your chance to enjoy a taste of the legendary group.

Tribute band The Upbeat Beatles play at the Grove Theatre in Dunstable on the last Saturday of the month and it will be a night of powerhouse vocals and close harmonies, pumped out with a driving backbeat.

The band uses their performance to tell the story of The Beatles' rise from the depths of Liverpool's Cavern Club to the roof top of Savile Row.

Formed in 1997, The Upbeat Beatles have performed at leading venues around the UK and overseas in countries such as China, the United States, Holland and Bermuda.

They are recognised as one of the premier Beatles tribute bands and are booked to perform 120 shows this year alone.

Simon Blight, who plays Sir Paul McCartney in the band, said the show will recreate the authentic Beatles sound.

He said: "The Beatles are not with us anymore and Paul McCartney does tours every five years or so. The only way to relive it is to recreate it and that's what we set out to do."

"In the seven years they were together they really turned the music industry upside down. In those days pop music was respectable but the Beatles really took the music by the scruff of the neck. "So we try to tell the story of the Beatles and the excitement of the whole thing."

The first part of the two-hour show will see the band recreate the atmosphere of a Beatles show, before moving on to demonstrate how the band's sound changed in the latter years.

Simon added: "There is a lot to tell in a two-hour theatre show. The big problem for us was choosing which songs to leave out."

"We started with a set which is about three-hours long but that's too much for a theatre show.

"So we sing all the hits but also look to surprise the audience with a few other songs."

Tickets for the show cost £17.50 and you can book online at www.grovetheatre.co.uk or by calling the box office on 01582 602080.

Local talent to strut their stuff at the Grove

DANCE

The Grove Theatre
Friday, May 24, 7.30pm

ON FRIDAY the Grove will be welcome the superb talent of local dancers in one fabulous show – GD*1.

Back for its fifth year, GD*1 showcases a real blend of dance styles, from street and ballet to Egyptian and disco, solo pieces to whole dance troupes.

Each local act, having worked passionately and enthusiastically throughout the last few months, will have the opportunity to shine and showcase all their hard work to the public.

The stars of this year's production are Donna's Dance School, On Pointe Dance Academy, Tina's School of Dance, GD Move, GD Fusion, Sahir Safra, Jane's School of Dancing, Leanne Hughes Theatre School, The Bee's, Zumba with Gina, NKB School of Dance, Stella Mann College, ASAD Dance, Rayners School of Dancing and Tom Page.

One of this year's performers, the NKB School of Dance, will be taking to the stage again after supporting Strictly Come Dancing's Pasha Kovalev and Katya Virshilas at the Grove earlier this month.

In previous years the group has supported the stars of BBC TV's Strictly show whenever they have visited the town, so you are certain to see a very polished and professional display.

GD*1 was created by the Grove Theatre to provide the community with an opportunity to recognise and support the talent of local dancers.

The show gives individuals, troupes and schools the chance to reach a wider audience with their work and gain invaluable experience performing on a full-size theatre stage.

Tickets for this evening of dance are £10 and can be purchased online at www.grovetheatre.co.uk or by calling the box office on 01582 602080.

Make your wedding special by popping along to the fayre

EXHIBITION

The Grove Theatre
Today, 10am-4pm

BRIDES-TO-BE looking for inspiration to make their big day a really special one, should head down to today's wedding fayre at the Grove.

This annual event brings together and showcases a number of different wedding suppliers, including photography, videography, cake design, catering, décor, health and beauty and entertainment.

So why don't you pop along for some ideas and inspiration on how to make your dreams a reality and get help in making your special day one that you will never forget.

It is going to be held in the theatre's foyer, making it a fantastic opportunity to check out the theatre as a potential reception venue.

Jo Ditch, general manager at the Grove, said: "We are thrilled to be hosting another wedding fayre, giving our local residents and those further afield the opportunity to shop around for their special day."

"This is one of a series of fayres that we run at the Grove, including a Christmas Craft Fayre."

"Stalls for this craft fayre can be booked by contacting Pauline on 01582 884181 or emailing grovetheatre@leisureconnection.co.uk."

Entry to today's wedding fayre is free and a complimentary glass of bucks fizz will also be on offer.

A small step for Star Trek

FILM REVIEW

STAR TREK: INTO DARKNESS (12A)

Running Time: 2hrs 10mins

Director: JJ Abrams

IF NEW Star Wars director JJ Abrams – brought in by Disney to extend the George Lucas universe – now bows out of the Star Trek franchise, then he has at least set it up for the next generation.

To be honest, this sequel to his excellent 2009 reboot only solidly adds to the existing template without being sensational – but does what is required in terms of a summer blockbuster.

British Sherlock star Benedict Cumberbatch revels in his villainous performance as power-enhanced terrorist John Harrison, who has been tracked to a desolate Klingon homeworld by Enterprise crew – including the returning Kirk (Chris Pine), Spock (Zachary Quinto), Uhura (Zoe Saldana), Bones (Karl Urban) and Scotty (Simon Pegg) – after several attacks on federation targets.

Even though it is a tad bloated, fortunately Into Darkness has enough touches of ingenuity from Abrams –

Trekkie references, comedic touches, action set-pieces, emotional moments – to make this a sequel that is efficiently likeable.

One could argue it probably doesn't evolve into the breathtaking five-star spectacle that it could have been – but if Abrams makes this kind of progress with Star Wars then the new sequel trilogy is undoubtedly in good hands.

Into Darkness is 'one small step' instead of 'one giant leap' – but he has boldly taken this popular series to the next level with his expert guidance.

Lunch, golf and a whole lot of running

ENJOY yourself this summer by popping down to Luton Hoo and taking part in some of the events on offer next month.

Grab your girlfriends and make a date in the diary for the Ladies Luncheon on June 3.

The meal costs £39.50 per person and includes a glass of champagne and canapés on arrival, a three course lunch with a glass of wine and coffee to finish.

For the men, there is the Men's Pairs Golf Open on June 14 and a Father's Day 'Tee Time' lunch on June 16.

The meal will either be in the Wernher Restaurant or Adam's Brasserie and includes a voucher for a free round of golf valid until September 30.

If group and family events are more your thing then grab your sports kit and suit up for the Sunday on June 23.

It is a new event being hosted by Tri For Life and there are three different distances to choose from – there's even a fancy dress race for the kids.

More details on these events can be found at www.lutonhoo.co.uk.

THE MARRIAGES AND CIVIL PARTNERSHIPS (APPROVED PREMISES) REGULATIONS 2005

The Marriage Act 1994 and the Civil Partnership Act 2004 makes provision for proceedings to take place at any Register Office or building approved under the terms of these Acts which has been granted an Approval by Central Bedfordshire Council and Bedford Borough Council.

A building seeking an Approval should be permanent and provide a dignified and seemly location for the celebration of a civil marriage or civil partnership registration. Proceedings may take place between the hours of 8.00 am and 6.00 pm.

Application has been received from the following seeking the approval of the Authority to the premises known as to be granted Approval under the Act. The Approval, if granted, will be valid for a minimum period of three years from the date of issue.

Moore Place Hotel, The Square, Aspley Guise, Beds MK17 8DW

Greenhouse Maximum Capacity 75
Woburn Suite Maximum Capacity 60

A copy of the application along with a plan of the premises to which it relates may be seen, free of charge, at the offices of the Registration and Coroner Services Manager for Central Bedfordshire Council and Bedford Borough Council, The Court House, Woburn Street, Amptill, MK45 2HX between 9.00 am and 4.30 pm Mondays to Thursdays and between 9.00 am and 4.00 pm Fridays.

CAROLINE RITCHIE, Proper Officer's Representative for Central Bedfordshire Council and Bedford Borough Council, The Court House, Woburn Street, Amptill, MK45 2HX

Service: Accommodation Services in Care Homes with and without Nursing

One of the key priorities for Central Bedfordshire Council is to improve outcomes for both frail older people and those with dementia. This requires close partnership working with registered care home providers to help deliver high quality care to older people which increases their choice of care homes and improves the quality of the services they receive.

Central Bedfordshire Council would like to invite care home providers to attend a briefing on the Councils proposals for the future commissioning of care home places for older people in Central Bedfordshire. This briefing session will provide information on the reasons for the changes, the contractual model to be implemented and the transitional arrangements to be applied.

The meeting is open to all CQC registered care home providers supplying, or planning to supply, residential or nursing care services to older people in the Central Bedfordshire area.

It will take place on 28th May 2013 between 1.30 and 2.30 pm at Council Chambers, Watling House, High Street North, Dunstable, LU6 1LF.

We do hope you will be able to join us for this session. Please indicate whether you will be attending by emailing OPAccommodation@centralbedfordshire.gov.uk SEAT's Alhambra is a large, 7-seater Galaxy-sized MPV that has value, technology, practicality and sheer cleverness on its side. If you're browsing in this sector and this car isn't your shopping list, then it should be. Here, we check out the most popular 2.0 TDI 140PS diesel variant.

Inside, there's plenty of versatility in all models thanks to the Easy-Fold seating system. You needed a MENSA IQ and the strength of a Ukrainian shot putter to maximise the luggage capacity of the old Alhambra, as the seats needed to be folded, unclipped from their mounts and lifted out. Now both rows of rear seats can tumble down beneath the floor with a minimum of fuss. The boot capacity isn't huge with seven people inside but there's as much as 1,167-litres with five occupants and up to 2,297-litres when you travel two-up, a figure that can be extended still further by folding the front passenger seat flat, allowing nearly three metres of load length.

If you're carrying people rather than packages, entry is now by optionally electrical sliding doors (so your kids won't re-sculpture the bodywork of adjacent cars any more as they throw themselves out into the supermarket carpark) and access to the third row (which is where my three always want to sit) is also made easier by the Easy Entry function through which the outer seats in the second row tilt and slide forward in a single motion. Once in these rearmost chairs, kids will be delighted to find that they sit a little higher than those ahead, while their parents will discover that this is one of those unusual things: a 7-seater that seven fully-sized adults can actually fit into.

A-team on top to seal league

IN a tightly contested match, Luton's Lansdowne A defeated stable-mates Lansdowne B 3-2 in frames to retain the South Bedfordshire Cricket League Premier Division Championship.

It has been four years since The Lansdowne Club re-entered the local league, and in that time the A team have been champions three times with the B side earning the runners up berth on just as many occasions.

The B side has also tasted victory in the team knock-out cup competition.

Skipper given role in Derby

BEDFORDSHIRE have still to decide who is to take over from Steve Stubbings as captain.

Stubbings is expected to skipper the side in the MCCA Trophy group match against Hertfordshire at Harpenden next Sunday, but this is likely to be his farewell appearance for the county.

The former Derbyshire batsman was last week appointed full time coach of the Second XI by his former county meaning that overnight Bedfordshire lost their captain, coach and opening batsman.

"The offer came right out of the blue and obviously it was one that Stubbings could not turn down," said Bedfordshire chairman Ian Smith.

There is no obvious replacement for Stubbings. "There are a lot of talented cricketers in the squad but the average age of the side which played in the first game against Oxfordshire was 21. It is asking a lot to expect one of them to take responsibility for captaining the side at this stage.

"Ideally we would like to find another experienced player who could double up as captain and coach. We have a few ideas and I shall be speaking to someone over the weekend," said Smith. Time is not on Bedfordshire's side because they play again the day after the Hertfordshire game, taking on Cornwall at Cople on Bank Holiday Monday.

"To join such an illustrious coaching staff is a great privilege but also a great responsibility," said Stubbings.

KICKBOXING

Tate ready to play the game

ANDREW Tate is gearing up to face an 11-time world champion.

The fighter from Luton's Storm Gym will take on Marlon 'The Game' Hunt at the Indigo O2 Arena on June 29.

Storm's founder Amir Subasic is looking forward to the pair squaring off, and has already started the war of words ahead of the anticipated clash.

"Hunt has been avoiding Tate for over five years," said Subasic.

"We will see if he is that game this time."

Tate, nicknamed King Cobra, beat Dutch fighter Marino Schouten, both pictured, in his last outing, also at the Indigo.

The bout was part of the Enfusion Live main card and was aired in more than 50 countries around the world.

In the end Tate was given the win via unanimous decision, and is regarded as one of the world's best 85kg fighters.

New deal for Tyler

FOOTBALL

BY DAN PALMER

HATTERS keeper Mark Tyler said that he didn't want to play for any other team after signing a new deal at Kenilworth Road.

The 36-year-old shot stopper has inked a one year extension to his terms after his Luton Town contract expired on Friday.

"I didn't want to go anywhere else," said Tyler.

"This is a great club and the supporters are fantastic.

"It's a shame we haven't been promoted since I've been here but that's what I want to achieve, especially for the fans.

"We know we had a disappointing season and we know we've got to bounce back next year.

"The cup run was the highlight but I'd swap all of that for promotion any day."

Tyler, pictured, first appeared for the Hatters in 2009 when he kept goal in a 1-1 draw with AFC Wimbledon.

He has since gone on to make 184 appearances for the club, keeping 72 clean sheets.

The veteran has made 681 professional appearances in all and should be a great help to recently signed 22-year-old keeper Elliot Justham, who was plucked from East Thurrock United.

"You simply cannot buy experience that Mark has," said Luton boss John Still.

"I remember when I first put him in the team at Peterborough and knew then that he would go on and have fantastic career.

"He's an invaluable member of the team and I believe he will go on to be a great role model for Elliot Justham.

"Mark's knowledge of the game and love for Luton Town is infectious and I'm delighted we will have him for another year."

Meanwhile, the Hatters have lost U18 striker Ollie Cole to Premier League Norwich City.

The forward has been at the club since U12 level and has made rapid progress through the ranks, finishing as the leading scorer in the U15 group stages of the Cordial Cup, against some of Europe's best teams.

He ended his U15 tenure as a regular starter in the U18 league, and hit a hat-trick in the opening game of this season against Norwich, on his way to 11 goals in 18 appearances.

Head of Youth Operations Matt

Stannard told Luton's website: "We are very happy to see another one of our players progress further up the ladder. It's a move that is right for both Ollie and Luton Town."

• The Hatters have arranged a home friendly with Aston Villa for July 23.

Lions lead the way as Midweek season continues apace

CRICKET

LIONS CC continue to lead the way in the Luton Midweek Cricket League Premier Division after they made it two wins from two thanks to a four wicket victory over Luton CC.

Imran Malik blasted 36 and Owais Shah made 35 as Luton posted 116/7 from their 16 overs – Sohail Wajid taking 3-27 for Lions.

In response, Shahid Ashraf made his way to 31 as Lions reached 120/6 after 15.2 overs.

There was also a victory for Luton Haiderys who just edged out Luton Pakistanis by 10 runs.

Hairderys reached 149/2 thanks in no small part to a knock of 79 from Qaser, and Pakistanis fell just short as they finished on 139/7.

In the final game in the division Luton United Stars also tasted success as they beat Luton Hawks by six wickets in a game for the bowlers.

Idrees Butt took 4-9 as Hawks were bowled out for just 83, with Stars reaching 84/4 with nearly five overs to spare in the game.

Next week, Lions will take on the Stars, Hawks face Luton Majestics and the Pakistanis square off with Luton CC.

In Division One, Luton Eagles have a 100 per cent record after their six wicket victory against AKCC.

Eagles dismissed their opponents for just 88 after being asked to field, and then made 90/4 after 14 overs to seal the win.

Luton Saracens are also undefeated with two wins from two as they beat Hairdery Tigers by three wickets in another low scoring contest.

Tigers were bowled out for 89 and Saracens needed just 12 overs to pass the total, although they did lose seven wickets along the way.

Luton Cricketers CC completed the action in the division by seeing off Kingsway by 24 runs.

Umar Afzal took 3-16 as Cricketers were put into bat, reaching 118/9 with Arshad Mahmood top scoring on 29.

Kingsway started well in response with knocks of 25 from Sanjay Chandarana and 30 from Atif Ali looking to have set them on course.

They slipped back in the middle and lower order though, and were eventually restricted to 94/9 as Fayaz Mohammed took 3-22.

Next week's fixtures see Cricketers face AKCC, Saracens meet Kingsway and Shaheen CC meet Hairdery Tigers.

In Division Two, AKXI enjoyed a narrow one wicket victory over Challney CC, who batted first and reached 120/7 from their allotted overs.

AKXI got over her line with a ball to spare, eventually reaching 121/9.

Elsewhere, The Saracens 2nd XI won by 37 runs against Alpha CC.

Saracens made 129/7 and then dismissed Alpha for 92 to ensure that they continue to top the table on run rate from Accident Specialists.

The Specialists were due to be in action but their scheduled opponents, Kashmir Cavaliers, conceded the contest.

AKXI will face the Cornered Tigers in the next round of games, with Alpha playing Challney and Kashmir Cavaliers meeting The Saracens 2nd XI.

Fifth placed Luton Town and Indians CC take on Sharnbrook today in the Bedfordshire County League Premier, while sixth placed Dunstable Town will travel to Southill Park. Meanwhile, third place Lutonian will visit Amptill.

'I can feel it' - we'll get promotion says Lawless

STAYING: Alex Lawless scoring against Wolves in the FA Cup this season

Picture: Gareth Owen

sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

ALEX Lawless had no qualms about snubbing two League One clubs – as he believes Luton Town are on their way back to the big time.

The club's player of the year was tipped to leave Kenilworth Road this summer after the Hatters endured another season of frustration in the Blue Square Bet Premier, and a pair of clubs in the English third tier did indeed come knocking for the Welsh midfielder's services.

He didn't mind turning them down to sign a new two year Hatters deal though as he thinks Luton have the prestige to match many sides who are above them in the football pyramid.

"As I grew up as a boy and a young footballer I was aware of the history and tradition of Luton Town," he said.

"We were once a club riding high in the top two divisions.

"With the fan base and players and management we've got in place, I certainly think we can get back there.

"Since I've been at this club there's been a determination about the place to get back into the League and go onwards and upwards from there."

Lawless became a Hatter in November 2010 and very much gives the impression that he has unfinished business at Kenilworth Road, and that he is not prepared to move on until his goals have been achieved.

"I came here to get promoted," he said. "I have a burning desire to get promoted with this club.

"It's unfortunate that in the past four seasons promotion hasn't been achieved but this time I can see it – I can feel it – I'm hugely positive about next season and beyond.

"Over the years I've come to feel a part of this club and I want to help it get promoted.

"Everyone has ups and downs in football. We endured the extreme low of losing in two play-off finals and, after this season's failure to make the play-offs, it makes you realise how hard you have to work if you want to be successful."
